

2026 Tax Calendar

January 2	March 31–April 26		April 15–May 15	June 16	May 15	August 31	October 15	November 15	November 10–24
Assessor sets value and classification for the following year	Tax statements are mailed for the current year	Valuation notices are mailed for the following year	Local board of appeals and equalization meetings are held	County board of appeals and equalization meeting is held	1st half of taxes are due for real estate and personal property	1st half of taxes are due for manufactured homes	2nd half of taxes are due for real estate and personal property	2nd half of taxes are due for manufactured homes	Auditor mails proposed taxes for the following year
		Now is the time to contest your value or classification			1st half of taxes are due for property classified as agricultural			2nd half of taxes are due for property classified as agricultural	Now is the time to provide feedback on levies
		If you have feedback or concerns regarding your property value or classification, contact the Assessor's Office: 507-725-5801	See your valuation notice for your jurisdiction's meeting time and location	County board meeting is held in the commissioners room of the historic courthouse at 6:00 pm					If you have concerns regarding levies, meeting times are listed on the proposed taxes statement
		Now is NOT the time to provide feedback on levies							Now is NOT the time to contest your value or classification